The Song of the Taxed.

The ladies are all more or less deep'y inte-ested in the boby lusiness, and will doubt'es thank us for the following appropriate and see ronable nursery song. It is even more truthing than beautiful. Learn it, mothers: Rock-a-ny-baby, your father's a slave. To the familic rule and the Redical knave;

store;
For, of all that he earns, there's but little he threw the body into the back yard:
After feeding pst negroes and Radical thieves.

Every tool that he works with, the lamp that borns, The thing that he works on, the wages he earns:

On the stove in the kitchen, the coal too—still higher; Aye: even the match that sets light to the fire; On his pipe of tobscoo, his whisky and beer; On the modicine he buys for you, poor little dear.

Mrs. Marks, until about two o'clock in time. In 1861, they only ran 5½ days a week; in 1862, 2½ days; in 1863, 2½ days; in 1864, 3 days; in 1865, 4 days; in 1865, 5 days; in 1867, 5½ days. During the present year, the average would be only 5½ days; on his pipe of tobscoo, his whisky and beer; on his pipe of tobscoo, his whisky and beer; on the modicine he buys for you, poor little dear.
